ABSTRACT

The Regional Unit for Social and Human Sciences in Asia and the Pacific (RUSHAP) is entrusted with the tasks of coordinating, planning, and executing UNESCO's program for the development of social and human sciences in Asia and the Pacific. The activities conducted by RUSHAP during 1984 and 1985 are reported in this document. The activities conducted under various major programs; the organization's participation in meetings, seminars, and workshops; and missions made to member states in the region are documented. Three appendices include: (1) a list of visitors to the office (1984-1985); (2) a note on administration-personnel movement; and (3) a table showing volume of correspondence. (DB)

INTRODUCTION

UNESCO established a post of the Regional Adviser for Social Sciences in September 1974 at its Regional Office for Science and Technology for South East Asia (ROSTSEA), Jakarta. The first incumbent started functioning from there at the beginning of January 1975. His office was transferred to Bangkok in February 1977, as a Regional Unit for Social Sciences in Asia and Oceania, forming an integral part of the then UNESCO Regional Office for Education in Asia and Oceania (ROEAO). Through a later decision of the General Conference, the word 'Oceania' was replaced by 'Pacific' both for the Unit and the Regional Office. With the inaugural of the Second Medium-Term Plan in 1984, the Sector for Social Sciences was renamed as Sector for Social and Human Sciences; consequently, the Unit's name was also changed to reflect the expansion of its activities covering both Social and Human Sciences. The Unit is now named as Regional Unit for Social and Human Sciences in Asia and the Pacific (RUSHSAP).

RUSHSAP's current staff includes a Regional Adviser (RASHSAP), and an Assistant Programme Specialist. There is a provision of two Associate Experts for the Unit, but at present, there is only one Associate Expert attached to the Unit.

Originally started as a wing of the Division for the International Development of Social Sciences, this Unit has now been given the responsibility of co-ordinating and implementing activities of the entire Sector that are planned for this region. It now functions under the direct supervision of the Assistant Director-General for Social and Human Sciences. The Unit has endeavoured to develop inter-sectoral linkages by participating in the organization of their activities. In particular, it works very closely with the Division for Ecological Sciences in the Science Sector, assisting it in the promotion of social science input in MAB. Collaborative arrangements have been forged with the Regional Office for Education in Asia and the Pacific, and the Regional Offices for Science and Technology (Jakarta, and New Delhi). It also assists the UNESCO Office for the Pacific States, based in Apia, Western Samoa.

RUSHSAP is entrusted with the following tasks:

(i) Co-ordinate and execute UNESCO's programme for the development of social and human sciences in Asia and Pacific;

(ii) Help in planning UNESCO's medium term programme for the development of social and human sciences in the region;

(iii) Maintain close working relationships with other United Nations agencies, in particular with Resident Representatives of the United Nations Development Programme, with Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP), and with U.N. institutes;

(iv) Act as social science adviser to other regional offices especially in regard to programmes in science policy, environmental studies, and educational programmes with special reference to integrated rural development;

(v) Contribute actively to the planning and carrying out of the activities of the Sector in Asia and the Pacific and take appropriate steps to stimulate and facilitate the effective participation of all Member States concerned therein;

(vi) Promote social science contribution to the Man and the Biosphere programme (MAB);

(vii) Develop documentation services;

(viii) Carry out such other functions in the field of social and human sciences as may be assigned by the Assistant Director-General for Social and Human Sciences.

The activities of the office cover the following countries:

Afghanistan; Australia; Bangladesh; Burma, Bhutan; People's Republic of China; Democratic Kampuchea; Democratic People's Republic of Korea; India; Indonesia; Iran; Japan; Lao People's Democratic Republic; Malaysia; Maldives; Mongolia; Nepal; New Zealand; Pakistan; Papua New Guinea; Philippines; Republic of Korea; Socialist Republic of Viet Nam; Sri Lanka; Thailand; Tonga; Turkey; Union of Soviet Socialist Republics; and Western Samoa.

1. VISITORS

A total of 197 visitors were received at the Unit during 1984-85. These included important officials of the various national commissions, including those from Denmark, France, and Federal Republic of Germany; ministers or deputy ministers; senior U.N. officials; leading social scientists; and research scholars. The newly appointed ADG of the Sector, Dr J. Labastida Martin del Campo also came to inspect the office.

2. MISSIONS

During the period under report, a total of 20 missions were undertaken by the staff of this office. The missions were undertaken:

- to have discussion with National Commissions, National Councils of Social Science Research, Universities and Ministers
- to organize and attend UNESCO meetings
- to represent UNESCO at meetings of other international or national agencies
- to have discussion with researchers involved in UNESCO projects and publications.

3. VOLUME OF CORRESPONDENCE

The volume of mail despatched and received during the period of two years has reached more than eight thousand and five hundred letters (excluding packets and parcels of books and documents).

The following table shows the volume of correspondence in the last five years.

Year	1981		1982		1983		1984		1985

4. MEETINGS AND SEMINARS

The Unit organized four following meetings and training seminars during 1984-85:

(a) Meetings

1984: (i) Regional expert meeting on teaching and research in International Law (held in Seoul, Republic of Korea, from October 10 through 13, 1984)

(ii) Regional meeting of representatives of institutions on "Intellectual Co-operation in Developing Countries" (organized under contract by Chulalongkorn University Social Research Institute, Bangkok, from November 20 through 23, 1984)

(iii) Regional Seminar on Education for Peace, Disarmament and Human Rights through Adult Education and Out-of-school Education (jointly with the Education Sector)

1985: (i) Meeting of Researchers for Project: Women : Domains of Decision (RUSHSAP, Bangkok, 1-5 April)

(ii) Sub-regional Expert Meeting on Training of Population Field Staff Trainers (organized under contract by AIBD, Kuala Lumpur, from 25-29 August). A follow-up seminar was convened by AIBD in December

(b) Training Seminars

1984: (i) National Training Seminar on Development Planning in Nepal (organized under contrct by Nepal Social Science Research Council, in Kathmandu from 9 to 12 September)

1985: (i) Regional Training Course in Social Science Methodology (organized under contract by the Republic of Korea's National Commission for UNESCO and in collaboration with Korean Social Science Research Council, in Seoul from 22 April to 3 May)

(ii) Sub-regional Training Seminar on Concepts and Methods in Development Planning in the Pacific (organized under contract by Institute of Social and Administrative Studies, the University of South Pacific, in Suva from 22 July to 2 August)

5. COLLABORATION WITH ROEAP

This Unit collaborated with ROEAP in the following activities:

1984: (i) Project on Studies on Planning and Management of Education in Rural Areas : Focus on Decentralization and People's Participation

(ii) APEID Study Group on Education and Prospective Changes in the World of Work

1985: (i) The Fifth Regional Conference of Ministers of Education and those responsible for Economic Planning of Member States in Asia and the Pacific (4-11 March)

(ii) APEID Regional Workshop for Development of Materials for Primary Level Science Education (20-23 August)

(iii) Regional Review Meeting on Situation of Education of Girls for Universalization of Primary Education (19-28 November)

6. RUSHSAP PUBLICATIONS

The following reports and documents were published during the period:

1) Report on the Workshop on Training of Barefoot Architects, held in May 1983, in Bangkok

2) Report on the Synthesis Meeting on the Project on Swidden Cultivation (MAB), held in Chiang Mai in September 1983

II. REPORT ON ACTIVITIES UNDER VARIOUS MAJOR PROGRAMMES

Major Programme VI : The Sciences and their Application to Development

Programme VI.4 : Research, Training and International Co-operation in the Social and Human Sciences

Sub-Programme VI.4.1 : Strengthening of National Potential for University and Post-graduate Training and Research with Particular attention to Increasing the Participation of Women in such Artivities

Paras 06410-06417

Inventory of national potential in research, training at the higher education level, information and documentation in the social and human sciences and philosophy

- National Potential in Asia and the Pacific (para 06415)

In 1974-1975 UNESCO initiated national surveys on the status of Social Sciences that covered 24 countries of the Region. The results of the survey were later published in a book form under the title Social Sciences in Asia and the Pacific.

During 1984-1985, it was decided to extend the exercise to cover those countries not earlier included. Contracts for the preparation of country reports on social science teaching and research were established in the following countries: Lao People's Democratic Republic, Maldives, USSR, Turkey, and Tonga.

The Unit attempted to synthesise the findings of different country reports with a view to developing a regional profile of the social sciences.

Sub-Programme VI.4.2 : Regional and Sub-Regional Co-operation

Paras 06436-06443

Strengthening of organizations and programmes for regional, sub-regional and national co-operation

Unit 1 Asia and the Pacific : Institutional Support (para 06436)

A) AASSREC

The Association of Asian Social Science Research Councils (AASSREC), which had completed a decade of its existence in 1985, has received continuous support from UNESCO. RUSHSAP worked closely with the Association and in 1984-85 provided technical and academic as well as financial assistance for the organization of the Executive Council Meeting (1984, Bangkok) and for the 6th General Conference (1985, Bali, Indonesia).

The Executive Council Meeting was held at the UNESCO office in Bangkok from 3 to 7 September 1984. RUSHSAP staff attended the meeting on special invitation. The meeting reviewed and appraised the past programmes and activities and planned new programmes for 1985. It approved publication plan for 1985 and discussed the organizational matters such as associate membership, amendments in the constitution, expansion of membership, etc. In addition, the meeting approved the final version of the Report on the proceedings of the 5th Conference for publication. It also decided about the programme and schedule and other preparatory work for the 6th Conference.

The Sixth Conference of the Association of Asian Social Science Research Councils was held in September 1985, at Bali, Indonesia. The Conference was attended by 11 of the 12 member councils, and observers from the academies or councils of China, Democratic People's Republic of Korea, Japan, Malaysia, and the Pacific Social Science Association. UNESCO was represented by the ADG of the SHS Sector, and the Regional Adviser. The Rector of the U.N. University, Professor Soejatmoko came to deliver the Keynote Address. The Conference convened two symposia on (i) Social Sciences and the Government, and (ii) Youth and Society : Viewpoints on Future. It also held a special session to discuss the prospects of

Dr. M. Buchori of LIPI Indonesia President of AASSREC for 1983–1985 greeting the newly elected President, Dr. Sung-Chick Hong of the Republic of Korea

Dr. J. Labastida Martin del Campo, ADG/SHS, and Dr. Soedjatmoko, Rector of the United Nations University attending the Conference establishing a Regional Network of Social Science Information and Documentation Centres. Prior to the Conference, several member councils organized national level seminars on the two symposia themes. The Conference decided to hold its next session in Seoul, Republic of Korea, in August 1987.

B) Project on Food Self-Sufficiency

A researcher from the Indian Institute of Management prepared a report containing (i) a bibliographical survey and review of existing literature in social and human sciences on socio-economic aspects of problem of hunger and food self-sufficiency; and (ii) a feasibility study for a regional project in the area of food and hunger.

Unit 2 Asia and the Pacific Regional Training Courses (para 06438)

With the endorsement of AASSREC Executive Council, the offer from the Republic of Korea to host a Regional Training Course in Social Science Methodology was accepted. The training course was organized from 22 April to 3 May 1985 in Seoul, in collaboration with the Korean Social Science Research Council, and the National Commission of the Republic of Korea. 22 trainees from nine countries in the region participated; the course was given by six faculty members, including the Regional Adviser. This training course focussed on quantitative methodology and the application of computers to social science data processing and analysis.

Unit 3 Asia and the Pacific Pilot Project (para 06439)

As part of the Experimental Project for the production of indigenous teaching material to be set up in co-operation with regional organizations, support was given to the Institute of Pacific studies of the University of South Pacific. Three textbooks have been published with UNESCO's financial assistance : the first volume of the series, titled Kiribati : A Changing Atoll Culture deals with the cultural profile of a Pacific Island, the second volume examines the political structures of the Pacific Island countries in the process of decolonization (title : Decentralization in the South Pacific); the third volume provides an account of the Pacific Island Economies. These constitute part of the "UNESCO Sponsored Series on the Social Sciences in the Pacific".

Unit 4 Asia and the Pacific Feasibility Study (para 06441)

With endorsement by AASSREC at its Executive Committee Meeting in September 1984, a contract was made with a consultant, Dr Ursula Picache, former Dean of the Institute of Library Science, University of the Philippines, for carrying out a feasibility study on the establishment of a Regional Network of Social Science Information and Documentation Centres. The study provides information on the situation and facilities already existing in the field of social science information and documentation in a number of countries of the region and suggests ways of setting up links for information exchange.

In September 1985, a special session of the 6th General Conference of AASSREC was devoted to examine the findings of the study and discuss the feasibility of the network. The study was later sent to all the National Commissions of the region and to the members of AASSREC in order to get their views and comments on the establishment of the network, preparatory to the formal launching of the Network in 1986.

Programme VI.5 : Research, Training and Regional and International Co-operation in Some Key Areas in the Social and Human Sciences

Sub-Programme VI.5.5 : Studies on the Status of Women and Development of New Approaches

Paras 06533-06534

Regional directory of women researchers and institutions in Asia and the Pacific (para 06535)

a) Regional directories of women researchers and institutions

Due to limited amount of funds available for this activity, and also in order to avoid duplication of work, inquiries were made about the existing directories in the region.

After careful examination of the available documentation, a questionnaire was devised by RUSHSAP and canvassed through the national focal points and/or the UNESCO national Commissions of the region. Responses from 15 countries were received. These have been analysed and the manuscripts prepared for their publication in 1986.

b) Preparation of teaching materials on Women's Studies

As a follow-up to the New Delhi Meeting of Experts on Women's Studies and Social Sciences, a project for the preparation of teaching materials was launched in 1984. As a first step an "Issue paper" was prepared and sent to several interested institutions and scholars to seek their opinions and ideas regarding the work to be carried out.

Taking into consideration all the responses, guidelines for the preparation of teaching materials were prepared.

In 1984, the project was commissioned to two countries, namely India and Thailand, and in 1985 three more, namely Japan, the Philippines and Turkey were involved in the project.

All the contractors have completed their assignments. They are now being encouraged to find publishers in their own countries so that the materials produced by them can be used in teaching at the college level.

Major Programme VIII : Principles, Methods and Strategies of Action for Development

Programme VIII.1 : Study and Planning of Development

Sub-Programme VIII.1.1: Development and International Relations

Paras 08125-08126

Co-operation between developing countries, and socio-cultural factors conducive to regional and sub-regional integration (para 08125)

In order to evaluate the extent to which regional co-operation has taken place and the factors that have supported or retarded its promotion, a Regional Workshop on Intellectual Co-operation between Developing Countries in Asia was organized in November 1984 in Bangkok, in collaboration with the Chulalongkorn University's Social Research Institute (CUSRI). The meeting was attended by representatives from 16 institutes/organizations/funding agencies, including ADIPA/APDC, IDE, RIHED, AMIC, IDRC, SEAMEO, UNICEF and ESCAP.

The purpose of the meeting was to examine the existing modalities of exchange of expertise and training of skills, and to evaluate their contribution to the task of regional and sub-regional integration. In the light of such a review, it was possible to identify problems and gaps and to develop suggestions and recommendations for a strategy aiming at strengthening intra-regional co-operation and integration. The idea of setting up a regional network of organizations and institutions engaged in the area of social, cultural and economic development was discussed. In particular, the meeting emphasized the need for co-operation and collaboration among the agencies and institutions in the area of social science information and documentation.

The final report on the meeting has been published.

Sub-Programme VIII.1.2 : Development, Population, Environment and Technological Progress

Para 08135

Development, population and the brain drain

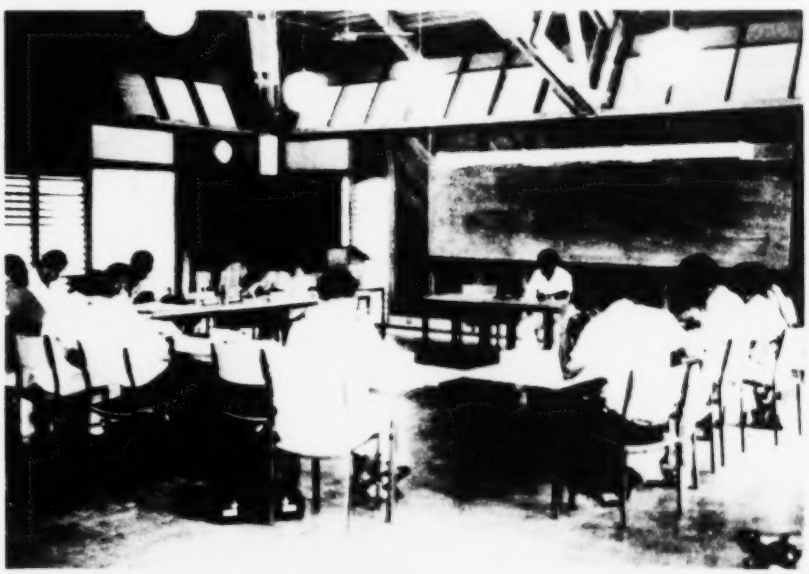
1. The findings of a research project launched in 1982 on the migration to the Middle East from four Asian countries -- viz, India, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, and Thailand -- were edited and sent to their respective authors for their finalization. The editing was jointly done by RUSHSAP staff and an ILO staff member; besides editing, this group also wrote introductory and concluding chapters. The manuscript titled Middle East Interlude : Asian Workers Abroad was sent to the Press for its eventual publication in early 1986.

2. In order to examine the phenomenon of migration of professionals, particularly involving young highly qualified personnel -- researches on brain drain were commissioned to scholars in India, Sri Lanka, and the Philippines. The researchers were invited to carry out the country studies following the guidelines provided by RUSHSAP.

   The reports from the countries are expected in early 1986, when they will be edited for a possible publication.

TRAINING ACTIVITIES

Regional Training Seminar on Social Science Methodology
Seoul, 22 April - 3 May 1986



Training Seminar on Techniques and Methods of Development Planning, Suva,
22 July - 2 August 1985

Sub-Programme VIII.1.4 : Development Planning and Evaluation

Paras 08161-08163

Expansion of capacity for the initial and in-service training of national planning personnel

Unit 1 National Training Course in Development Planning in Nepal and Fiji (para 08161)

Two training seminars on Development Planning were organized in Nepal and in Fiji. The courses focussed on concept and methods of planning with particular reference to emerging concerns in the area of development.

In Nepal, the course was organized by the Nepal Social Science Research Council in close collaboration with RUSHSAP. The two-week workshop took place in Kathmandu from 9 to 21 September 1984 and was attended by about 25 participants. The training seminar in Fiji was organized by the Institute of Social and Administrative Studies, the University of the South Pacific, in Suva from 22 July to 2 August 1985. The seminar was attended by 14 participants and several observers from Fiji, Tonga, Cook Islands, Marshall Islands and Vanuatu.

Unit 2 Promotion of Sub-regional Population Training of Trainers (Para 08163)

Four state-of-the art papers on training in population communication were prepared under contract in 1984 for Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines and Thailand. These provided the background documentation for a sub-regional meeting on Training of Population Field Staff Trainers, organized under contract by the Asian Institute for Broadcasting Development in Kuala Lumpur from 26 to 30 August 1985; it was attended by 23 participants from six countries, namely India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand, and Socialist Republic of Viet Nam. The meeting discussed the ways and means to strengthen communication component in training of trainers in the field of population.

As a follow-up, another seminar on the same topic was organized by AIBD in Kuala Lumpur in December 1985.

Programme VIII.3 : Implementation of Action for Development

Sub-Programme VIII.3.2 : Mobilization of Human Resources

Paras 08331-08333

Co-operation with member-states and non-governmental organizations with a view to mobilizing young people through their participation in development and decision-making in this field

In order to mark the International Youth Year, financial assistance was given to regional and national associations for promoting intellectual discussion and developing activities in the field of youth.

A Symposium on "Youth and Society : Viewpoints on Future" was held during the 6th General Conference of the Association of Asian Social Science Research Councils (AASSREC) in September 1985. Member Councils of AASSREC were requested to convene national level seminars and report on them during the symposium. In co-operation with the AASSREC Secretariat, the guidelines for the seminars were prepared and diffused. Financial support was given to the Nepal Social Science Research Council, the National Research Council of Thailand, and the Social Science Research Council of Bangladesh to help them organize the national seminars. Financial assistance was also given to the Youth International Centre, in New Delhi, to facilitate the organization of a Regional Conference on Youth, Development and Peace.

In 1983 RUSHSAP organized a Regional Seminar on the Elaboration and Promotion of Indicators in the Analysis and Planning of Youth Programmes. As a follow-up of that exercise national profiles on youth were commissioned in a number of countries making use of the set of indicators developed at the seminar. During the biennium under report, it was decided to update, edit and publish two of such monographs; namely, Youth Profiles of Thailand and India.

RUSHSAP also assisted SES Division in carrying out a regional review of researches on Youth and Unemployment. This review was also presented by the contractor at the special symposium on Youth organized in conjunction with the 6th General Conference of AASSREC.

The Regional Adviser represented UNESCO at two international gatherings held in the region as part of the celebration of the International Year of Youth. One of these was held in Auroville (India), and the other in Beijing (People's Republic of China).

Major Programme XIII : Peace, International Understanding, Human Rights and the Rights of People

Programme XIII.1 : Maintenance of Peace and International Understanding

Sub-Programme XIII.1.1 : Reflection on the Factors Contributing to Peace

Paras 13121-13122

Analysis of international relations in their political, social and cultural dimensions and development of the study and Teaching of Public International Law

Preparatory to the Regional Consultation Meeting on Teaching and Research in International Law, country reports on the status of the discipline were commissioned in nine countries of the region, namely Australia, India, Indonesia, Japan, Pakistan, Philippines, Republic of Korea, Sri Lanka and Thailand.

A regional expert meeting was held in Seoul in collaboration with Korean National Commission for UNESCO and the Korean Association of International Law from October 10 through 13, 1984.

The report of the meeting has been published. The publication also contains the national status reports, and forms part of the RUSHSAP Series on Occasional Monographs. This publication was accepted by the UNESCO Press in Paris for its worldwide sale.

Programme XIII.3 : Education for Peace and Respect for Human Rights and the Rights of People

Sub-Programme XIII.3.3 : Extension of Action to Out-of-school Education and Adult Education

Para 13330

Out-of-school education and adult education. Contribution to the regional consultation in Asia and the Pacific

A Regional Seminar on Education for Peace, Disarmament and Human Rights through Adult Education and Non-formal Education was organized by the Federation of World Teachers' Unions (FISE) under contract with UNESCO, from 3 through 7 December 1984, in Colombo, Sri Lanka.

The Regional Unit for Social and Human Sciences assisted the Education Sector in the organization of the meeting and provided travel support for four participants from the region. As a follow-up of the above seminar, support was given for the preparation of teaching materials on human rights in Thailand. The materials, consisting of a set of cartoons, a game, and a general report was prepared by the Faculty of Law, Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok. This is meant to be used in educational activities dealing with child labour and prostitution. Both Thai and English versions of the material have been published.

Programme XIII.4 : Elimination of Discrimination based on sex

Sub-Programme XIII.4.3 : Participation of women in Political, Economic, Social and Cultural Life and in the seeking of solutions to the major problems of the world and to the main scourges of our times

Para 13424-13426

Promoting the participation of women in decision-making in various fields of public life (para 13424)

The project "Women : Domains of Decision" was launched in mid-1985, to conduct country studies in India, Indonesia, Malaysia, and Thailand. For the formulation of a research design for this cross-cultural comparative study a meeting of researchers was held from 1 to 5 April 1985 in Bangkok.

The research design prepared by the meeting has been published. The work on the project is at an advanced stage of completion.

Dr. A. Ravuvu, Institute of Pacific Studies, The University of the South Pacific handing over to the Regional Adviser the book "Island Economics," published in the "UNESCO supported series on Social Sciences in the Pacific." Bangkok, 1985.

To ensure comparability, RUSHSAP designed the questionnaire, and got it pretested in all the four countries before its finalization. The responses received on the questionnaires were centrally tabulated at RUSHSAP (using the computer facilities of ESCAP). The researchers are currently drafting their final reports.

III. PARTICIPATION IN MEETINGS

Staff of the RUSHSAP Unit participated, in the following meetings:
